

Terms and conditions of payment

1. All fees are payable in advance; payments are non-refundable and non-transferable.
2. Insurance, personal spending, competition costs or any other incidental expenses are not included in fees paid to the Swiss Tennis Academy and are the responsibility of the player.
3. The player agrees to be responsible for his own belongings. The Swiss Tennis Academy may not be held responsible for any losses or damage to equipment or personal belongings.
4. Any images or media exposures taking place at the Swiss Tennis Academy will remain the property of the Swiss Tennis Academy in perpetuity.
5. The player agrees to abide by the Swiss Tennis Academy program rules and codes of conduct.
6. The Swiss Tennis Academy and its staff may not be held responsible for any loss, damage or injury as a result of training or competition either at the Swiss Tennis Academy or outside.
7. The player agrees to provide a medical certificate stating that the applicant is able to take part in an intense training program.
8. If due to circumstances beyond control (i.e. death in the family, injury of more than three months etc.), which have been so determined by the management of the Swiss Tennis Academy, a player must leave the program without having completed it, the Academy management can offer the player a refund for the part of the period paid for and not consumed, in accordance with the following criteria. If exclusion occurs due to a serious offense, the player is not entitled to a (prorata) repayment of any already paid amounts.

In regard to the amounts paid for the tennis program, a maximum amount will be paid equal to the difference in complete calendar months between the end of the program and the date of withdrawal, minus an amount equivalent to one month, which will remain as compensation for the Swiss Tennis Academy.

As for the amounts paid for boarding, a maximum amount will be paid equal to the difference in complete calendar months between the end of the program and the date of withdrawal, minus an amount equivalent to one month, which will remain as compensation for the Swiss Tennis Academy.
